Madness Indeed

By Christina Strigas

I picked up the book and couldn't put it down. One poem led to another and suddenly I finished the book, wanting more. I follow Thom Young on Instagram and love his style of writing. Bukowski inspired and raw poetry combined. The one thing I would have wanted was to read more...too short.

I highly recommend.

This was probably written as a cheap grab for money

By Mana G

Out of the 44 poems in here, there were about two that were decent. The author writes in a very condescending tone and a lot of the 'poetry' seems to be written not with the intent to share truth nor beauty, but rather to have content to publish. While it is okay to be brash and crass when expressing feelings in poetry a lot of the content was straight up rude for seemingly no reason.

I had originally come here from the author's Instagram account where he claimed to be a best-selling, #1 author and I am severely disappointed and feel slightly conned. While he did reach #1 in Germany it's not an impressive feat- it only takes a few sales or downloads in Germany to achieve a #1 rank, especially in poetry. As I write this the current US Amazon sales rank is #2,161,767 and I'm really not surprised. There is little to no quality in this 'book' of 'poetry'. Would not recommend.
