Wonderful comprehensive source of the latest practical information and wise insights

By Lindsey Biel, OTR/L, Coauthor, Raising a Sensory Smart Child & Author, Sensory Processing Challenges

I loved this book in its first edition, and as a pediatric occupational therapist I have recommended it to hundreds of family members, teachers, and therapists. This brand new edition is better than ever, filled with updated practical information, excellent resources, and much-needed insight into parenting or working with a child, teen, or even adult with autism. From the revised DSM-5 diagnostic criteria to educational approaches, therapeutic and biomedical interventions, and the latest research, Chantal Sicile-Kira has done a spectacular job once again, providing parents and professionals alike with a comprehensive source of useful, real-life guidance. Written with warmth, compassion, and wisdom, this is a book I will continue to recommend to my clients and colleagues as well as in the workshops I teach to parents, educators, therapists, and other caregivers. --Lindsey Biel, OTR/L, Author Sensory Processing Challenges: Effective Clinical Work with Kids & Teens and coauthor, Raising a Sensory Smart Child

Reference book on Autism

By lilly

I have a grandchild that has been diagnosed with autism spectrum disorder. This was a very good book to read to help understand what is happening with her now and as she gets older. I also like the fact that it lists a lot of other books and resources that might be helpful.
