Thanks to the big promises made by politicians, our government lives beyond its means, doesn't pay its bills and forces young workers to pay for the lucrative benefits of older workers -- benefits that won't exist for the next generation. Generation Screwed is the manifesto that teaches young Canadians how to fight back against the Ponzi schemes set up by their government.

Definitely screwed

By Norman Shaw

The book was well researched and described nicely how our government borrows from the present to pay for the future. It was easy to read. My one critique is that it was repetitive.
