Marietta Parks believes that the only way to stop surprises from happening in life is to control your own fate. Paying attention to every detail she scripts out her own life. Leaving love, romance and children out of it. But then she meets a man who just has to be added into her story, Tobias Harden was the man of everyone's dreams but then he was a lovely addition to her already scripted life. Tobias Harden was the modern day Casanova. Love was not in his vocabulary, and he was allergic to the word commitment, like poison Ivy to the bare skin. A chance kiss with Marietta Parks makes him question his single life. He was to be the best for her, and oddly enough she happens to be the only woman he wants to kiss. Tobias convinces Marietta that she needs him in her life. But after three years of marriage and life's obstacles, he finds himself in bed with another woman. He has to convince her that he is still the man for her, especially now that she's pregnant.

Good Read

By LOVE GOOD ROMANCE

I do believe this is Ms. Kenyan best book. SPOILER

Marietta have a lot of baggage so understand her i just don't understand Tobias cheating and womanizing . His mother and father were happily married so what causes it? are him just full of himself? I'm glad they both got counsel. How the hell the father get on the property with all the security and media presents with no one seeing him? Would recommend you will enjoy it. at one time i just want to pounce on Tobias. Don't think i would have taken him back but Marietta is complicated and strong. few typo but Great read.

This was a good book with a lot of twists and turns. Mattie and Toby had a roller coaster relationship. You can guess what happens after the opening and even prouder on one of the twists. The third one was pretty sad.

While Toby didn't have a lot of character development he complimented Mattie(Marietta) who seriously needed someone strong by her side.
