Survivalist

By Gene

This follow-up makes the old saying "if it wasn't for bad luck she would have no luck". This poor girl thinks she's home free, finding her biological father, brother and mother only to think she's lost them again. How many times can this girl be drug thru hell!

Good story but tied up too pretty to be realistic

By AKC Book lover

I read all three book in a day and I liked the premise and she was very authentic for Jane. I did think that the ending seemed a little too tidy and wrapped up. I mean Dominick tortured her for a time and he explains that he hated her for a while. I undertand forgiving them, but now it's like their this big happy family, and I didn't get the Justin and Josh loving her. Dominick I get it was clear. But on the whole, the insane reality of sex trafficking was portrayed very accurately. These readers want to believe that someone couldn't endure this but it is happening everyday in every city. Wake up.

WOW!

By VinellaGal2000

I stumbled upon this third book, not realizing it was available. I fell right back into Jane's spiral into her living hell. The energy and excitement of this final book was so good, I finished this book in no time.

I kind of wish it wouldn't end!
