brilliant taiwan architect of modern & avant garde corporate architect amazing just amazing. never heard of this guy in any of the architecture books ie 100x10 PT2 & 3 or reviewed in architectural record.

By NiQ

although one can say that kris yao is derivative of other noted architects but he is able to create more interesting work vs norman forster[in my mind] and mr yao is lucky or clever in getting his clients to put up such interesting work vs how most North American corporate buildings.

Plus the book is amazingly put together. kudos to the editors.
