OK, not great

By Deirdre M.

I'm about half-way through this book. Fortunately I got it out of the library and didn't spend any money on it. There's nothing really new in here, except some (to me) eye-rolling suggestions. (Keep your old CDs and turn them into jewelry!) I find myself thinking, while reading, that most of the suggestions in here are really impractical. Check it out at the library before you consider buying.

Skip it

By Critical Cosmologist

List of obvious, generalized and superficial tips--nothing special or specific here. And she brags about spending $1.99 for 24 plastic bottled water. Gross! Made me lose respect for the author. Wish I hadn't wasted my time. Much better off reading tightwad gazette.

Less is more!

By MagicTeacher

I just bought this book and it's got some pretty great advice. I'm trying to get a grip on my finances and I actually bought 4 money management books - two of them were terrible. This book and Moneymalism: A Minimalist Money Guide were the two best! 5 stars!
