About the Author

Dr. E. W. Kenyon (1867—1948) was born in Saratoga County, New York. At age nineteen, he preached his first sermon. He pastored several churches in New England and founded the Bethel Bible Institute in Spencer, Massachusetts. (The school later became the Providence Bible Institute when it was relocated to Providence, Rhode Island.) Kenyon served as an evangelist for over twenty years. In 1931, he became a pioneer in Christian radio on the Pacific Coast with his show Kenyon's Church of the Air, where he earned the moniker "The Faith Builder." He also began the New Covenant Baptist Church in Seattle. In addition to his pastoral and radio ministries, Kenyon wrote extensively.

For more than fifty years, Don Gossett has been serving the Lord through full-time ministry. Born again at the age of twelve, Don answered his call to the ministry just five years later, beginning by reaching out to his unsaved family members. In March 1948, Don overcame his longtime fear of public speaking and began his ministry in earnest, preaching for two country Baptist churches in Oklahoma.

Blessed with the gift of writing, Don became editor of the Bible College magazine in San Francisco; afterward, he was invited to become editor of an international magazine. Following this, he served as editor of T. L. Osborn's Faith Digest, a magazine that reached over 600,000 homes each month.

Don has penned many works, particularly ones on the power of the spoken word and praise. His writings have been translated into almost twenty languages and have exceeded twenty-five million in worldwide distribution. Additionally, Don has recorded scores of audio series. His daily radio broadcast, launched in 1961, has been released into eighty-nine nations worldwide.

Don raised five children with his first wife, Joyce, who died in 1991. In 1995, Don found lifelong love again and married Debra, an anointed teacher of the Word. They have ministered worldwide and have lived in British Columbia, Canada, and in Blaine, Washington State.

In September 2009, Don and Debra (also an ordained minister) founded a new church in Vancouver, British Columbia, where they continue to serve as pastors. The International Community Church truly is an international body of believers with members from many nations sharing a vision: to bring the saving, healing, and restoring power of Jesus to the community, locally and abroad.

Watch you Tongue

By AJ57

This is an excellent book that reminds us that there is truly the power of life and death in the tongue. What we were taught on the playground that "Sticks and stones may break my bones but words will never hurt me!" is nothing but a deception to fool us into thinking that words are harmless. The power of the tongue in guiding your destiny is very powerful indeed. Another reviewer argued incorrectly I believe that the author was giving non-Biblical advice by telling people "We should never confess our sins to people... Never tell anyone about your weakness or about your past blunders and failures"...

What he was trying to get the reader to understand was not that you should never tell them... you just don't go on and on repeating the confessions about them. Once it is done that's it. No more. Understand this and you can accept his instruction in its entirety.

Scripturally Sound...Amazing Book

By Sharlene W

This book is such a game changer for the average person like myself who speaks what they feel without thinking about the impact it has on their destiny. My grandparents use to give me the same advice but putting it in biblical perspective was really important to me. I recommend this book to everyone and I am still in the process of learning the scriptures which reiterate the title of this book.
