My favorite book of the Crusher series! Well played, Mr. Leonard, Well played.

By L. Ness

Action, Action, Action! Shredder was the best of the Crusher trilogy! Leonard takes no prisoners in this "swing for the fences" crime thriller. It is a mind bending race through London and nobody is safe. You will not be disappointed in this read that leaves you exhausted at the end but in a good way!

Wow! I couldn't wait to find out what Finn did next and was NOT disappointed. I got the impression Mr Leonard really found his rhythm writing this last book and we are carried along with Finn as he reels from one potential life threatening situation to another. The scenes are very easy to imagine as a film - the action was non-stop, sharp dialogue and heart in mouth moments aplenty.

If you enjoyed Crusher & Incinerator you're going to love Shredder.

When will they be released as a boxed set? Would be a perfect present for any thriller/action fan - of any age.
